Trail: Crissy Field Promenade to Fort Point

<https://www.parksconservancy.org/parks/crissy-field>

Distance: 2.3 mi (3.7 km) Elevation Gain: 10ft Trail Surface: Compacted Natural Material, Boardwalk, Asphalt

We'll walk along Crissy Field and SF Bay (stroller, child, and dog-friendly). The trail runs to and from Fort Point along the waterfront, denoted by the dotted line. Enjoy picnic areas along the way, the infamous 'Warming Hut' (bobbles and cool/hot drinks), amazing photo ops, and experience the brisk cool ocean breeze (hats/jackets recommended). Stop along the way and play in the sand, jump in the frigid SF Bay, and/or take photographs.

Parking: Free parking along Marina Green, in the lot near Golden Gate Promenade and St Francis Yachi Clue, or in the East Beach Crissy Field Parking Lot. See map on the back of the flyer.

Team BAPHON is participating in Alex's Million Mile for the 10th year to support finding a cure for all children with cancer. Join us or donate to our page!

Meet up location: Golden Gate Promenade

The Golden Gate Promenade/Crissy Field Promenade starts adjacent to the parking lot north of the Little Marina Green Picnic area at the beach/water's edge. There is an elevated concrete area with a few benches that transitions to the compacted path.

Free Parking:

- (1) Foot of the Golden Gate Promenade near the photo symbol on the map below or in the
- (2) Crissy Field Parking Lot denoted by "P" symbol
- (3) Along Marina Boulevard
